

WORKSHOP – Predicting extinctions on islands: a multi-scale assessment

(FCT Project FCT- PTDC/BIA-BEC/100182/2008)

25 June 2013 – Angra do Heroísmo (Terceira – Azores)

PROGRAM

9h30- Rob Whittaker – Conservation Biogeography in Islands

10h15 -Paulo A. V. Borges – A Long-term Ecological project for monitoring Azorean arthropod biodiversity (BALA)

10h45 – Coffee Break

11h00- Aristeidis Parmakelis – Population genetics of selected Azorean endemic spiders and beetles

11h45- François Rigal - Extinction and invasion patterns in oceanic islands fauna: the case of Azorean arthropods

12h30 – Paulo A. V. Borges – Main Conclusions of the Project -- “Predicting extinctions on islands: a multi-scale assessment” (2010-2013)

13h00 Lunch

14h30 - Round Table with the presence of the Azorean Director of Environment (Dr. Hernâni Jorge), Azorean Director of Forests (Eng^a Anabela Isidoro) and the Director of Terceira Island Natural Park (Dr^a Sónia Alves).

Thematic - Conservation of Azorean native forests - Strategies for the future

16h30 Visit to the Terceira Island Natural Park guided by Dr^a Sónia Alves